SAN FRANCISCO FILM COMMISSION RELEASES STATEMENT ON CANCELLATION OF HBO'S "LOOKING"

"The San Francisco Film Commission is saddened to hear that the San Francisco-based HBO series, Looking, has been cancelled.

We would like to take a moment to extend a tremendous Thank You to HBO and the hardworking cast and crew for several years of dedication creating this series in our city. This one production created hundreds of local jobs for our talented production community and highlighted unique elements of our city like no other series has done.

Looking championed the way for modern LGBT-based storytelling, and for that we are forever grateful. The San Francisco Film Commission is honored that HBO chose our city for this groundbreaking television series.

Here's Looking at you, working with you and creating historical television with you."
